ABOUT TOWN.

—Essex Paper Mill will shut down on Tuesday.

—Beware of the foolish persons on next Wednesday.

—A number of cases of measles are now prevalent among small children.

—J. C. Saxton has been confined to his house for two weeks by sickness.

—Martin Zankle, the enterprising barber, has had his shop newly decorated.

—Rev. J. M. Ensslin will occupy the pulpit in the German church to-morrow.

—Mr. Jarvis Peloulet reached home from his European trip on Sunday evening.

—Mr. C. F. Schrader, the jeweler, will be located in his improved store on April first.

—Hendricks Brothers' Copper Mill was closed on Saturday last for an indefinite period.

—It is stated that the salvation army are going to locate in town. If so, free fun will be plenty for a time.

—Thomas B. Baxter has sold the Jacobs house on Montgomery street to Rev. W. G. Farrington for $4,000.

—Three robbers were discovered on Thursday morning at Glenridge singing their sweet songs. Spring has come at last.

—Mr. George H. Seymour will move to Bloomfield about April 1, and occupy one of Mr. Jacobson's houses on State street.

—The question of organizing a hose company for Watessing has been again considered and will probably be acted upon in a short time.

—A regular meeting of the Bloomfield Fire Association will be held at the Hose House, on Monday evening, March 30, at eight o'clock.

—Wm. H. Johnson, the painter, has enlarged his store by removing the partition between his room and that recently occupied by T. E. Flays, as a plumbing shop.

—A surprise party was tendered to Mr. D. D. Anderson, agent of the N. Y. & G. L. Railroad, on last Friday evening. About thirty couples were present and enjoyed dancing until a late hour.

—Emerson-Hagy, of Canal street, ran a needle in his leg on Tuesday. Dr. Ward was called to remove it, but only succeeded in removing part of it. He predicts no further trouble from the part still there.

—The Reform Club held their annual meeting last evening, when officers were elected and arrangements for meetings for the following year considered. A full report of the meeting will be given next week.

—Three coal cars were run off the south end of Wheeler's coal dump, at Montclair, the first of this week, caused by the breaking of a coupling link. The coal and cars were piled up in a confused mass for several hours.

—The pastor of the Watessing M. E. Church will preach his farewell sermon to his people on next Sunday evening, March 29th; service at a quarter to eight. All are cordially invited to attend this closing service.

—The Trustees of the First Presbyterian Church have arranged an evening's musical entertainment for Wednesday, April 8th. The combination of harp, organ and voice by the celebrated professional artists announced give promise of a concert of rare excellence.

—The fourth and last lecture of the present Seminary course was delivered on Tuesday evening by Professor George Macloskie, Sc. D., LL. D., of Princeton College. His subject was "Problems in Biology." As to what biology is see another column.

—We congratulate the publishers of Baldwin's Directory on securing the services of Mr. Fred N. Moffat, of this town, to make the canvass in Bloomfield and Montclair. Mr. Moffat has been connected with directory publishing for the last twelve years, three of which he held the position of manager for D. McAlpine & Son, the largest directory publishers in Canada. Mr. Moffat has been around among our business men for the last few days, and we are glad to say is very much pleased with the encouragement he has received. As the directory is really a necessity, and we have no doubt that this edition will be as near correct as it is possible for a directory to be, we hope our business men will encourage the efforts of the publishers in making the book a success.

—The Watessing Base Ball Association held a meeting at Ellor's hat shop, on Tuesday of this week, and elected officers for the ensuing year: Henry Bradley, Treasurer; H. Galien, Secretary; the other officers were re-elected. The name of the club will be the Athletics.

—Mr. Moffat, of this place, has charge of the work on Baldwin's new directory for Bloomfield and Montclair. For several years this work has been worse than useless, but as a change has been made in the canvasser, it is hoped we shall have a book worthy the name.

—A dog belonging to Michael Moore, of Brookdale, became mad on Sunday evening and bit Charles Lucas, a son-in-law of Mr. Moore, and Ethel Lyon, a daughter of Wallace Lyon. Several dogs of the neighborhood were also bitten, after which the animal made its escape.

—The students of the German Theological Seminary are endeavoring to raise funds for purchasing a gymnasium for their institution. The cause being a worthy one, they should receive the support of the people of this place. Any donations handed to any of the students will be properly applied.

—Last Sunday evening, Rev. D. R. Lowrie preached his farewell sermon in the Park M. E. Church, which on this occasion was completely filled. The pastor has been here for three years, during which time the church has passed through a very successful period, and all regret that Mr. Lowrie must now take his departure.

—The annual election for officers of the Park M. E. Sunday-school took place last Sunday which resulted as follows: Superintendent, Fred H. Carl; Assistant Superintendent, S. Landon Hubbard; Secretary, Wm. Nelson; Treasurer, Fred E. Langstroth; Librarian, Theo. Cadmus, Fred E. Langstroth, John Ballard, Herbert Cocke, Jr.

—It is stated on official authority, that the D. L. & W. Railroad will continue the Bloomfield Branch to Morristown via Caldwell, and the work will be commenced in the near future. The corps of engineers are rapidly completing their work, and when the road is opened, a field which is likely to rapidly grow as favorable summer resorts will for the first time be opened to railroad communication.

—A Thanksgiving service was held last Sunday evening at the German Presbyterian Church, on Park avenue, for the recovery of the pastor, Rev. J. M. Ensslin. The church was well filled. The services were conducted by the Rev. G. C. Seibert, Ph.D., assisted by the Rev. John Rudolph, of Elizabeth. The pastor made a few remarks at the close, thanking the congregation for all kindnesses and his recovery.

—Sunday School Teachers' Normal Class will be held in the Sunday-school room of the Baptist Church during the month of April. Next Friday evening Mr. Brodhead will teach an Easter lesson for April 3th. The lesson for that date, viz., "Paul's Voyage," was taught last evening to be used on review Sunday, the 29th inst., thus giving an opportunity for a lesson on the Resurrection, which our Sunday-school Lesson Committee had not provided in their arrangements of the lessons.

—The first accident which has happened on the Bloomfield branch of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad in several years was caused last week by the misplacing of a switch by the flagman at the crossing just below the depot. Conductor Gardner's train which was a few minutes late, and as usual pulled up to the depot, and after having discharged its passengers backed down for the purpose of stowing away part of the cars and turning the engine. The flagman saw the train approaching and threw the switch to the spur to the left of the track. The rear truck of the last coach ran off and bent the connecting rod and four switch rods so badly that the gauge was narrowed considerably besides bending the tracks. The track men were called out and worked until nine o'clock before the switch could be replaced and the coach again put on the track.

Minstrel Entertainment.

The minstrel entertainment given by the Bloomfield Invincibles, at Library Hall, last Wednesday evening, had a very appreciative audience.

There were four end men in the circle—Messrs. Lyle, Vogelius, Davis and Unanyst; interlocutor, Mr. John Sanderson. Mr. Lyle sang "Evelina" (new version), Mr. Davis "Rain a Little," Mr. Vogelius "The Gospel Raft," Mr. Unanyst "The Golden Stairs," and were encored repeatedly. Some of the jokes were very good, especially the ones pertaining to the citizens of Bloomfield.

At the end of Part I. a new feature was introduced. A large sheet was stretched across the stage with the musical scale painted thereon, with openings to insert the heads of the darkeys, and a chorus sang, "My Country 'Tis of Thee."

In Part II. Mr. Cammeyer played classical music on his banjo and was accompanied by Mr. Gale on the piano. He was followed by Mr. Frank C. Bowne, who gave a number of humorous sketches and songs, imitating the different nationalities to perfection, keeping the audience in good humor for a long while. Mr. Lyle then appeared in plantation costume and gave some solos on the banjo, which were very fine. His witticisms were also good. As a finish, Mr. Lyle and Mr. Vogelius appeared in a sketch entitled, "Scenes in Bloomfield's New Hotel," which was very laughable. Mr. Vogelius rendered the part of Zeb Doolittle (not afraid of Ghosts), and was very funny.

Messrs. Lyle, Vogelius and Bowne appeared to be the favorites. We hope the venture was a financial success, as from the size of the audience we should judge it was.

Weddings.

Mr. Adam H. Bickler, of Bloomfield, was married on Thursday evening, to Miss Mary Vogel, by the Rev. Dr. Rice, at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 93 East Seventh street, New York. The wedding was private, only the immediate friends of the contracting parties being present. The groomsmen were Frank Vogel, Edward Bickler. The bridesmaids were Miss Emma Schultz and Miss Lizzie Fobert. The bride was dressed in white, trimmed with lace. Mr. and Mrs. Bickler received numerous handsome and ornamental presents. They will make Bloomfield their home.

Miss Mary Heckel was married last night to Albert Culberson, of East Orange, by the Rev. Dr. Pullen, the Congregational minister of East Orange. They expect to reside in East Orange.
